ORDER

Adopted: March 13, 2017

Released: March 13, 2017

By the Acting Chief, Wireline Competition Bureau:

1. In this Order, the Wireline Competition Bureau (Bureau) adopts procedures to provide interested parties limited access to proprietary or confidential information that has been or may be filed with respect to the Universal Service Administrative Company ("USAC") investigation proceeding concerning Sandwich Isles Communications, Inc.'s ("Sandwich Isles") receipt of universal service fund ("USF") support (hereinafter, "USAC Investigation Proceeding") and three related proceedings, as defined below, which, if released to competitors or those with whom the Submitting Party or a Third-Party Interest Holder does business, would allow those persons to gain a significant competitive advantage or an advantage in negotiations. We are mindful of the sensitive nature of certain information, and the importance of meaningful public participation in these proceedings. The Bureau finds that allowing limited access to competitively sensitive materials pursuant to the procedures set forth in this Sandwich Isles Protective Order allows the public (through appropriate representatives) to do so while also protecting competitively sensitive information from improper disclosure and use.

2. Accordingly, sensibly balancing the public and private interests involved, the Bureau concludes that these procedures serve the public interest and adopting them "best conduce[s] to the proper dispatch of the Commission's business and to the ends of justice." We therefore will make available to interested parties, pursuant to this Sandwich Isles Protective Order, proprietary or confidential information filed in the USAC Investigation Proceeding or in any of the proceedings related to: (1) the 2005 waiver Sandwich Isles received to be treated as an incumbent local exchange carrier serving the Hawaiian Home Lands for purposes of receiving universal service support; (2) Sandwich Isles'

To the extent the request is granted, an amended Appendix A will be issued. In addition, before a Submitting Party may designate particular documents or information as Highly Confidential, it must receive the written approval of the Commission staff, which, based on the Submitting Party’s representations, will make a preliminary determination whether the proposed designation meets the requirements set forth in this Protective Order. Each page of the Redacted Confidential Document or Redacted Highly Confidential Document and the accompanying cover letter shall be stamped "REDACTED – FOR PUBLIC INSPECTION." 11. *Procedure for Objecting to the Disclosure of Confidential Information and Highly Confidential Information to a Potential Reviewing Party.*¹⁴ Each Submitting Party and Third-Party Interest Holder shall have an opportunity to object to the disclosure of its Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information to any person seeking to review that information pursuant to this Protective Order. A Submitting Party or Third-Party Interest Holder must file any such objection at the Commission and serve it on Counsel for the person seeking access within three business days after receiving a copy of that person's Acknowledgment. Persons filing Acknowledgments shall not have access to Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information before the period for filing objections has passed, unless both the Submitting Party and any known Third-Party Interest Holders waive this requirement. If a Submitting Party files additional documents containing Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information, the Submitting Party shall notify any known Third-Party Interest Holders who have a confidentiality interest in the information before filing the additional documents. The Submitting Party shall file any objection to the disclosure of that additional Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information to any Reviewing Party before or contemporaneous with the filing, and any Third-Party Interest Holder shall file any such objection as promptly as practicable. Until any timely objection is resolved by the Commission in favor of the person seeking access and, if a motion for a judicial stay is timely filed, until such a motion is acted upon, a person subject to an objection shall not have access to the relevant Stamped Confidential Documents, Stamped Highly Confidential Documents, Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information. If an objection is not timely filed with the Commission, the Commission will nonetheless consider the objection and retains its discretion to prohibit further access to Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information by the Reviewing Party until the objection is resolved.

¹⁴ This paragraph describes the procedure for objecting to a specific individual being permitted to review Confidential and Highly Confidential Information pursuant to this Protective Order. The procedure for objecting to specific Confidential or Highly Confidential Information being reviewed by any individual pursuant to the Protective Order (in other words, for requesting that certain information be entirely withheld from review under the Protective Order) is set forth in Applications of Charter Communications, Inc., Time Warner Cable Inc., and Advance/Newhouse Partnership for Consent to Assign or Transfer Control of Licenses and Authorizations, MB Docket No. 15-149, Order, 30 FCC Rcd 10360, 10374, para. 26 (2015). As stated there, where such an objection is timely made, we will not require that the information at issue be disclosed under the Protective Order until the Commission resolves the objection, and if a timely motion for judicial stay is filed, until the court rules upon the stay motion. An objection ordinarily will first be ruled upon by the Bureau. If the Bureau rejects the objection, the objecting party will be provided 10 business days to file an Application for Review with the Commission; if an Application for Review is not filed within that time, the Confidential or Highly Confidential Information shall be made available to the Reviewing Party. If an Application for Review is timely filed and is denied by the Commission, the objecting party will be provided 10 business days to seek a judicial stay of the Commission's Order; if a motion for stay is not filed within that time, the Confidential or Highly Confidential Information shall be made available to the Reviewing Party.

on requesting a complete set of documents, it is encouraged to make such a request at the time it submits the Acknowledgment to allow it the opportunity to begin reviewing the documents at the end of the five-day period referred to in paragraph 6. All copies of documents that are removed from the Submitting Party's office must be returned or destroyed in accordance with the terms of paragraphs 13 or 23, whichever is applicable.

13. Review of Confidential and Highly Confidential Information in Electronic Format. If a person has been granted access to Stamped Confidential Documents or Stamped Highly Confidential Documents pursuant to this Sandwich Isles Protective Order that person may request one copy of information contained, recorded, or electronically stored on a CD-ROM, DVD, flash drive, portable hard drive or similar electronic storage device. The disk or other medium containing Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information in electronic format shall be physically sent to the person; but that person may electronically transmit such information to another person that has authorized access to such information pursuant to this Sandwich Isles Protective Order. Such information shall be transmitted in an encrypted fashion that protects the Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information from unauthorized disclosure. A Reviewing Party may temporarily load onto a computer the information in electronic format. Once loaded onto a computer, any files containing Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information shall be password protected immediately. The Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information may be stored on a computer for the duration of the proceeding. All files containing Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information shall be deleted from the computer no later than when proceedings at the Commission are complete. The original disk or other storage medium shall be stored securely and a record kept of any persons given access to it.

14. Use of Confidential and Highly Confidential Information. Persons obtaining access to Confidential Information (including Stamped Confidential Documents) and Highly Confidential Information (including Stamped Highly Confidential Documents) under this Sandwich Isles Protective Order shall use the information so obtained solely for the preparation and conduct of the USAC Investigation Proceeding and the Related Proceedings before the Commission and any subsequent judicial proceedings arising directly from those proceedings and, except as provided herein, shall not use such documents or information for any other purpose, including without limitation business, governmental, or commercial purposes, or in other administrative, regulatory or judicial proceedings. Should the Commission rely upon or otherwise make reference to any Confidential or Highly Confidential Information in its orders in these proceedings, it will do so by redacting any Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information from the public version of the order and by making the unredacted version of the order available only to a court and to those persons entitled to access to Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information under this Sandwich Isles Protective Order.

15. Permissible Disclosure. A Reviewing Party may discuss and share the contents of Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information with another Reviewing Party, with Support Personnel, as appropriate, and with the Commission and its staff. 16. Filings with the Commission. A party making a filing in the USAC Investigation Proceeding or the Related Proceedings that contains Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information shall submit to the Secretary's Office one copy of the filing containing Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information (the "Confidential Filing") and an accompanying cover letter. The cover or first page of the Confidential Filing and each page of the Confidential Filing that contains or discloses Confidential Information shall be clearly marked "CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION – SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER BEFORE THE FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION." The cover or first page of the Confidential Filing and each page of the Confidential Filing that contains or discloses Highly Confidential Information shall be clearly marked "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION – SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER BEFORE THE FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION.” The accompanying cover letter shall also contain the appropriate legend. The Confidential Filing shall be made under seal and will not be placed in the Commission’s public file. The party shall submit a copy of the filing in redacted form (i.e., containing no Confidential or Highly Confidential Information (the “Redacted Confidential Filing”)) to the Commission via ECFS.¹⁵ The Redacted Confidential Filing and the accompanying cover letter shall be stamped “REDACTED – FOR PUBLIC INSPECTION.” The cover letter accompanying the Redacted Confidential Filing shall state that the Party is filing a redacted version of the filing. Each Redacted Confidential Filing shall have the same pagination as the Confidential Filing from which it is derived. To the extent that any page of the Confidential Filing contains any Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information and non-confidential information, only the Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information may be redacted and the page of the unredacted Confidential Filing shall clearly distinguish among the Confidential Information, the Highly Confidential Information and the non-confidential information. Two copies of each Confidential Filing and the accompanying cover letter must be delivered as directed by Commission staff, and one copy must be served on the relevant Submitting Party. Parties should not provide courtesy copies of pleadings containing Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information to Commission staff unless the Bureau so requests, and any such courtesy copies shall be submitted under seal. Filers may contact the Wireline Competition Bureau at (202) 418-1500 if additional direction is needed.

17. Non-Disclosure of Confidential Information and Highly Confidential Information. Except with the prior written consent of the Submitting Party, or as provided under this Sandwich Isles Protective Order, Stamped Confidential Documents, Stamped Highly Confidential Documents, Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information shall not be disclosed further.

18. Protection of Stamped Confidential Documents, Stamped Highly Confidential Documents, Confidential Information, and Highly Confidential Information. A Reviewing Party shall have the obligation to ensure that access to Stamped Confidential Documents, Stamped Highly Confidential Documents, Confidential Information and Highly Confidential Information is strictly limited as prescribed in this Sandwich Isles Protective Order. A Reviewing Party shall have the further obligation to ensure that Confidential Information and Highly Confidential Information are used only as provided in this Sandwich Isles Protective Order.

19. Requests for Additional Disclosure. If any person requests disclosure of Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information outside the terms of this Sandwich Isles Protective Order, such a request will be treated in accordance with sections 0.442 and 0.461 of the Commission’s rules.¹⁶

20. Client Consultation. Nothing in this Sandwich Isles Protective Order shall prevent or otherwise restrict Counsel from rendering advice to their clients relating to the conduct of this proceeding and any subsequent judicial proceeding arising therefrom and, in the course thereof, relying generally on examination of Stamped Confidential Documents, Stamped Highly Confidential Documents, Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information to which they have access under this Protective Order; provided, however, that in rendering such advice and otherwise communicating with such clients, Counsel shall not disclose Stamped Confidential Documents, Stamped Highly Confidential Documents, Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information.

21. No Waiver of Confidentiality. Disclosure of Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information as provided herein by any person shall not be deemed a waiver by any Submitting Party of any privilege or entitlement to confidential treatment of such Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information. Reviewing Parties, by viewing this material, agree:

(1) not to assert any such waiver; (2) not to use Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information to seek disclosure in any other proceeding; and (3) that accidental disclosure of Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information by a Submitting Party shall not be deemed a waiver of any privilege or entitlement provided that the Submitting Party takes prompt remedial action.

22. Subpoena by Courts, Departments, or Agencies. If a court, or a federal or state department or agency issues a subpoena for or orders the production of Stamped Confidential Documents, Stamped Highly Confidential Documents, Confidential Information, or Highly Confidential Information that a party has obtained under the terms of this Sandwich Isles Protective Order, such party shall promptly notify each relevant Submitting Party and each known Third-Party Interest Holder of the pendency of such subpoena or order. Consistent with the independent authority of any court, department or agency, such notification must be accomplished such that each Submitting Party and each known Third-Party Interest Holder has sufficient opportunity to oppose such production prior to the production or disclosure of any Stamped Confidential Document, Stamped Highly Confidential Document, Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information.

23. Violations of the Protective Order. Should a Reviewing Party violate any of the terms of this Sandwich Isles Protective Order, such Reviewing Party shall immediately convey that fact to the Commission and to the relevant Submitting Parties and known Third-Party Interest Holders. Further, should such violation consist of improper disclosure of Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information, the violating person shall take all necessary steps to remedy the improper disclosure. The Commission retains its full authority to fashion appropriate sanctions for violations of this Sandwich Isles Protective Order, including but not limited to suspension or disbarment of Counsel or Consultants from practice before the Commission, forfeitures, cease and desist orders, and denial of further access to Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information in this or any other Commission proceeding. Nothing in this Sandwich Isles Protective Order shall limit any other rights and remedies available to the Submitting Party or any Third-Party Interest Holder at law or in equity against any person using Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information in a manner not authorized by this Sandwich Isles Protective Order.

24. Termination of Proceeding. The provisions of this Sandwich Isles Protective Order shall not terminate at the conclusion of this proceeding. Within two weeks after conclusion of these proceedings and any administrative or judicial review, or as otherwise directed by the Bureau, Reviewing Parties shall destroy or return to the Submitting Party Stamped Confidential Documents and Stamped Highly Confidential Documents and all copies of the same. No material whatsoever derived from Confidential Information and Highly Confidential Information may be retained by any person having access thereto, except Outside Counsel and Outside Consultants may retain, under the continuing strictures of this Sandwich Isles Protective Order, two copies of pleadings (one of which may be in electronic format) prepared in whole or in part by that party that contain Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information, and one copy of orders issued by the Commission or Bureau that contain Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information. All Reviewing Parties shall certify compliance with these terms and shall deliver such certification to Counsel for the Submitting Party and file such certification with the Commission not more than three weeks after conclusion of this proceeding. Such certification shall be made pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746 and is subject to 18 U.S.C. § 1001. The provisions of this paragraph regarding retention of Stamped Confidential Documents and Stamped Highly Confidential Documents and copies of the same and Confidential Information and Highly Confidential Information shall not be construed to apply to the Commission or its staff.
